WANAMAKER'S

WANAMAKER'S

What Makes the Store Comfortable?

TS freedom-or, rather your freedom. Nine acres of things to look at and scarcely a warning notice in the whole store. Its beauty-not especially of architecture but of contents. The art gallery-of course everybody comes to enjoy it; but that is incidental. Its authoritative styles-and they are clearly so acknowledged. No matter when you come, you can learn as much about dress as one could gather in a six weeks' tour of European capitals, and as much about home

The return of goods-so free that many merchants accuse us of spoiling you. But the broad-gauge store is a supplier not a mere trafficker, and the thing that for any reason doesn't suit we want you to send back. This means loss to us-maybe we deserve it through some fault of service; some error in inspection. Maybe we do not deserve half of it-the system was not evolved to simply give you chance to change your mind. But we builded better than we knew. You may change your mind, and we see enough reasons why you may want to, at times, to feel that liberality is not met by imposition.

Lowest prices. Everything sold here has the implied guarantee that your money could not have bought more of equal merit anywhere. This is crudely put. Is it plain? In the majority of cases Wanamaker prices are the lowest prices-in every case they must be as low as equal goods can be bought for, else we thank you to make claim. It helps us to cure blunders -for a wrong price, a high price, at Wanamaker's is a blunder most

The store is comfortable because rich in merchandise and the safest of places at which to buy.

Valentines are ready! Enough of them to show our appreciation, and yours, for the saint of sentiment. Strange how these mysterious missives breathe of the sender-and how the right one is always credited. It seems a shame to mention prices in this connection, but-2c to $6.

Furniture—Some Rare-Ripe Bargains

Did you ever go through an orchard or a berry patch when the crop had just been declared over for the year, and find straggling great big specimens of fruit, lusciously ripe? Most delicious. Well, one feature of this furniture sale was the adjustment of our own stocks. Today we invite you to share some ones and twos and threes-rare ripes because of the clean saving that is possible. Here is enough list to be suggestive-Women's Dressing Tables-

FF FLINT'S FINE FURNITURE CHAIRS OF FLANDERS.

No affectation in old Flemish carvings. They taught the world the beauty of boldness in sculpturing wood and yet fineness

Chairs that an antiquarian would treasure Chairs that an antiquarian would treasure have tail, straight backs, some panelled with leather, beautifully colored and tooled, such as only the wealthlest of the Flemish burghers indulged in. Others with heavy carvings of grotesque heads, delightfully unreal and spirited; broad, pierced 'rungs' connect the twisted legs.

Just as characteristic specimens in German and Italian Renaissance, and all at factory prices, as you
